

Announcement for ISHN 2018
Cleveland, Ohio, USA
June 19-23, 2018

Dear Colleagues,

The International Society for the History of the Neurosciences, in collaboration with Case Western Reserve University, is pleased to announce the 23rd annual meeting in Cleveland, Ohio, USA. Registration information is coming soon.

The goal of this meeting is to promote research and education in the history of neuroscience, both basic and clinical aspects, bringing together people active and/or interested in the field. Experts from around the world will deliver lectures on the history of the most important neurological disorders including epilepsy, dementia, stroke, and movement disorders. Members and other interested persons are invited to submit abstracts for platform and posters presentations.

One of the meetings themes will be the history of medical instrumentation related to neurology, neurosurgery, and the experimental neurosciences.

LOCATION

Case Western Reserve University
Cleveland, Ohio, USA
Dittrick Medical History Center
11000 Euclid Avenue

AGENDA

A formal call for abstracts will be issued soon. Initial proposals for symposia, presentations, or posters are welcome at this time. Forward proposals to Dr. Lanska at douglas.lanska@gmail.com.
