RECRUITMENT NUMBER: 2311

POSITION: Assistant Professor of Behavioral Neuroscience / Biological Psychology

EFFECTIVE DATE: August 17, 2016 (Fall Semester)

SALARY RANGE: Commensurate with qualifications and experience

MINIMUM QUALIFICATIONS: Ph.D. in Behavioral Neuroscience/Biological Psychology or closely related field. Degree at time of application or official notification of completion of the doctoral degree by August 1, 2016. Ability to teach a variety of undergraduate and graduate courses related to Behavioral Neuroscience. Evidence of effective teaching at the college level. Demonstrated ability to develop and maintain an active program of research in the area of Behavioral Neuroscience. Scholarly productivity as evidenced by peer-reviewed publications and professional presentations. Demonstrated commitment to working successfully with a diverse student population

DESIRED/PREFERRED QUALIFICATIONS: Research emphasis in, but not limited to, motivated behavior, mood/affective disorders, or drug abuse. Research expertise in utilizing modern approaches to address basic questions in Behavioral Neuroscience. Potential for or experience in generating external grant funding. Excellence in teaching, mentoring, student-centered research, and diversity. Ability to involve undergraduate and graduate students in faculty-directed research and/or mentor undergraduate and graduate students in independent research.

DUTIES: Teach a variety of undergraduate and graduate level courses in Behavioral Neuroscience. Potential to develop new courses in specialty area. Establish an independent research program and engage in research, scholarly and creative activities in the area of Behavioral Neuroscience leading to publication. Supervise students in research activities including undergraduate projects and Masters’ theses. Participate in significant service to the department, college, university, and community.

CSULB seeks to recruit faculty who enthusiastically support the University’s strong commitment to the academic success of all of our students, including students of color, students with disabilities, students who are first generation to college, veterans, students with diverse socio-economic backgrounds, and students of diverse sexual orientations and gender expressions. CSULB seeks to recruit and retain a diverse workforce as a reflection of our commitment to serve the People of California, to maintain the excellence of the University, and to offer our students a rich variety of expertise, perspectives, and ways of knowing and learning.
REQUIRED DOCUMENTATION:

- A Student Success Statement about your teaching or other experiences, successes, and challenges in working with a diverse student population (approximately one page, single-spaced)
- Letter of application addressing the minimum and desired/preferred qualifications
- CV (including current email address)
- Three current letters of recommendation
- Two additional separate statements addressing: 1) Teaching philosophy and skills, including teaching portfolio (e.g., sample syllabi and teaching evaluation summaries); 2) Research interests and skills and a statement of current and future research plans.
- A maximum of three reprints and/or preprints of published manuscripts with a detailed description of personal contributions to each publication.
- Copy of transcript from institution awarding highest degree
- Finalists will also be required to submit a signed SC-1 form, three current letters of recommendation (if not already submitted), and an official transcript

All required documentation must be submitted electronically through https://academicjobsonline.org/ajo/jobs/5859 with the exception of official transcripts and letters of recommendation, which must be addressed to:

Behavioral Neuroscience Search Committee
California State University, Long Beach
Department of Psychology
1250 Bellflower Boulevard
Long Beach, CA 90840-0901

Please address all other inquiries to:
Sheri Hale, (562) 985-5003 or Sheri.Hale@csulb.edu

APPLICATION DEADLINE: Review of applications to begin October 2, 2015
Position opened until filled (or recruitment canceled)